CARIBBEAN ENVIRONMENTAL
DEFENDERS NETWORK

Good Day Caribbean Civil Society Colleagues,

We hope this message finds you well.

On behalf of the Elected Representatives of the Public for the Caribbean under the Escazú Agreement, we warmly invite you to join us for a webinar "Reporting Back on the Third Forum on Environmental Defenders."

Reporting Back on the Third Forum on Environmental Defenders

Date: Mon 12th, May

Time: 2:00PM (-4GMT)

Location: ZOOM Meeting

Click Here To Register

What to expect:

- Session 1: Reporting Back on the Third Forum on Environmental Defenders
Join us to hear key takeaways from the recent Forum held in St. Kitts and Nevis from Nicole Leotaud and Bishnu Tulsie, including outcomes of the Action Plan for Environmental Defenders, the announcement of Caribbean Environmental Defender Network and more.
- Session 2: Public Consultation – Gender Mainstreaming in Escazú Implementation
We will be covering the Annotated Index of the Guide for Mainstreaming the Gender Perspective in the implementation of the Escazú Agreement.
Provide your input into this critical guide by contributing to the open survey here:

The survey is open until June 3, 2025

We encourage all environmental defenders, advocates, and civil society allies to join this important conversation.

Our collaboration on the Escazú Agreement in the Caribbean is key to achieving stronger protections and fostering more inclusive environmental governance across our region

Looking forward to your participation.

The Elected Representatives for the Public from the Caribbean are:

- Nicole Leotaud, Trinidad and Tobago - nicole@canari.org
- Bishnu Tulsie, Saint Lucia - btulsie@gmail.com
